Course Structure

The program is structured into 30 units which have further been arranged into “bite-size” lessons for longer retention and convenient application – which is the desired outcome of true education. Each lesson includes reading requirement and a video.

Assessment/Reinforcement

This is a Premium Coaching Course; hence the type of assessment is designed not to penalise you for getting anything wrong but to reinforce the principles from each Lesson. This is positive reinforcement and the basis of Academic Coaching. This assessment is based on the premise: What’s worth remembering is worth repeating. No real teaching takes place until learning has taken place.
